

SINCE WHEN ARE A MILLION NEW CUSTOMERS A BAD THING? SINCE THEY BECAME YOUR PROBLEM.

The pace at which new users and new information makes it to the network can be staggering. And it can make you feel like everything is flowing right through you. Well, fear not, fair network planner. At Tekelec, whether it's signaling, switching, or applications, we spend our time thinking about you, and about network issues just like yours. Everything we do is to make sure you have reliable technology and the right intelligence. Because we know you need to unplug every now and then.
